Employee Spotlight of the Month

Amed Preciado may be new to The Villas, just two months, but he has already made a genuine impression. Amed comes from a family deeply rooted in caregiving, living in both the Nogales and Tucson areas over the years. His mother has been a certified caregiver for nine years, and his brother works as a caregiver in the Green Valley area, making healthcare truly a family affair.

As an overnight caregiver, Amed appreciates the quiet moments he gets to spend with residents before they retire for the night, soaking up their stories and life advice like a sponge. In a touching coincidence, his grandmother's sister once moved into a home where he was working, a moment he won't soon forget.

Outside of work, Amed loves spending time with those closest to him and making trips to Mexico, especially for the coffee. He also has a passion for sports cars, hoping to have his own one day. With dreams of graduating from nursing school, Amed's future is looking bright!

A Caring Heart in the Neighborhood

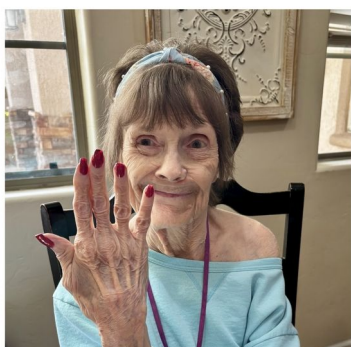

Born in Nogales, Mercey Maken has spent a lifetime doing what she loves most—caring for others. As the youngest of nine children, Mercey grew up surrounded by family and wonderful memories, including a childhood filled with laughter and good friends. A devoted caregiver at heart, Mercey spent years as a private caretaker, ran her own home daycare serving military families, and worked lovingly with teenagers with disabilities. Her greatest inspiration was her own mother, who taught her to be kind, respectful, and to always surround herself with good people. She has passed this same wisdom along to her four children: Nancy, Eddie, Dominic, and Esmerelda, whom she raised with that same loving spirit.

Mercey admits that she was not quite sure what to think about the adjustment of moving into an assisted living neighborhood upon her arrival, but after settling in, she says she never wants to leave The Villas! She has embraced her new friends, caregivers, and her neighborhood walks wholeheartedly, and we couldn't be happier to have her here.
